Synopsis

Chapter 14 - "DAYS OF '49"

"FOR LIFE AND LOVE"

Boris Demetroff and his man are trapped in the "Log Palace" by the Vigilantes. After a fight Boris is captured. Sonora is overcome with remorse that he should have been caught when he was there solely to guard her from danger. "Cal", head of the Vigilantes, tells Captain Sutter, who has just ridden up, to speak to Boris about Sonora's land grant before he is executed. Boris is granted a few minutes private conversation upstairs with Sonora and Captain Sutter, "Cal" being on guard outside.

Sonora asks to be alone with Boris for a few seconds, Boris promising not to try to escape. They plan to take a desperate chance - while Boris is on parole they are to leave the country and start afresh. Boris is taken downstairs where his request of 24 hours' parole is put before the people, they will not grant it. He then asks to be allowed to see Sonora dance before dying. This wish is granted, Sonora dances and gets up on a table. Boris signals to his man who is on horseback at the foot of the stairs to get off his horse and seizing a hanging portiere swings out onto the horse, picks up Sonora and dashes through the "Log Palace" "Cal" and the Vigilantes in close pursuit.

End of Chapter 14.
